

SuiteWorld20 Registration Instructions

Anyone planning to attend SuiteWorld20 needs to register using an existing Oracle single sign-on (SSO) account or will need to create one to complete the registration process.

1. Visit the SuiteWorld20 website and click any of the “Register” buttons to begin.
2. You will see a sign in page (image 1).
 - a. If you already have an Oracle Account, enter your username and password, click “Sign in” and skip to Step 4. Your username is generally your email address.
Note: If you have forgotten your username or password, click on the info icons () for assistance.
 - b. If you do not have an Oracle Account, click “Create Account” at the bottom, then continue to Step 3.

3. Fill in all required fields to create an Oracle Account (image 2). Please remember the password you create. Your username will be the email address you enter. These login credentials will allow you to access your registration profile at any time, including when you are onsite at the event.

Once you have entered all the required information, click “Create Account.”

After your account is created, you will see a confirmation and a message to check your email (image 3). You will be required to verify your email address. You will receive an email from Oracle to the address you used for your username. Click on the link provided in the email to finalize your Oracle.com account creation.

- You will then reach your Attendee Profile, where you will be asked to answer some questions about your industry, role, company, and more. If you are employed by a government organization, you can indicate it on this page, as well as any special needs you may have.

- If you plan to apply for a US visa, select “Yes” and enter the full name on your passport (image 7). A statement of attendance letter will be processed shortly after the registration is completed. Attendees are responsible for completing and submitting the visa application to their local consulate or embassy. Cancellation policy/dates will still be in effect even if your visa application is denied.

Visa Information

If you plan to apply for a US visa, attendees are responsible for complying with all applicable US immigration laws, and for following the guidance at the US consular website where you submit an application. You should consult with your own employer or other resources, such as the US consular office website, regarding questions about US visas and requirements. For information on US embassies and consulate, go to: <https://www.usembassy.gov>. Please note that if your visa application is denied and you choose to cancel your SuiteWorld registration, you will still need to adhere to the Cancellation Policy deadlines.

Complete Order

- All attendees, regardless of which sector they work in, must be in compliance when receiving a complimentary or discounted package. If you are employed in the private sector, you will be required to acknowledge that you are authorized by your company to accept an invitation to SuiteWorld20.

If you are employed by the government/public sector, you are required to download the compliance letter. This form must be signed by your organization’s appropriate legal counsel, ethics officer, or designated executive official for gifts/ethics matters and returned to the conference registration team before the start of the event. A link to this required compliance form, as well as instructions on where to send the completed one, is included with the compliance terms and conditions message that will appear when you submit your order.

- Once you complete the registration process, you will reach the confirmation page where you can book your hotel room (image 10). If you prefer to make your hotel reservation at a later date, or make any changes to your registration, simply log back into your account.

You will receive a confirmation email with an invoice attached.
